

Liberty vs. Radicalism Conference

Saturday 14 September
Rubin Wellness and Conference Hotel
3 Dayka Gábor St., Budapest

09:15 – 09:30	Introduction
09:30 – 10:00	Zoltán Kész: A Student's Essay That Changed The World
10:00 – 10:30	Frederik Cyrus Roeder: Reasons for Student Activism and How We Can Change the World
10:30 – 11:10	Tom G. Palmer: Liberty is Our Most Precious Possession, But What is It and How Can We Lose It?
11:10 – 11:30	Péter Krekó: Extreme Right as the Antithesis of Liberalism?
11:30 – 12:00	Csaba Tóth: Populist Euroscepticism as a Form of Political Radicalism in Hungary
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch
13:00 – 14:00	Ervin Szalai, Katalin Cseh and Krisztián Kálóczi: Worst Practices in Dealing with the Extremists: How Not to Deal with the Far Left and Right?
14:00 – 14:30	Máté Hajba: Conspiracy Theories and Forgeries: Disinformation as the Basis of Radical Thoughts
14:30 – 14:50	Tamás Boros: How Does the Media Handle the Far Right in Hungary?
14:50 – 15:20	Coffee Break
15:20 – 15:40	Bálint Jóna: No Hate Speech
15:40 – 16:20	Zsolt Berta: Strong Competition - Strong Economy
16:20 – 16:40	Petar Cekaravac: The Rise of Destructive Populism and the Libertarian Alternative
16:40 – 17:00	Ratko Nikolic: Promoting Freedom in a Hostile Environment The Case of the Students for Liberty Group at the Faculty of Philosophy at the University of Belgrade

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG FÜR DIE FREIHEIT

RSVP by September 11 to Zoltan Kesz at kesz.zoltan@gmail.com or Mate Hajba at greateduward@gmail.com

The program is FREE. Food, free books and other materials are provided.